His Worship Judge Obligado has obliged all the officers who took part in the recent duel (except Colonel Dantos who is a Deputy and cannot be touched) to remain under arrest in their domicile till further orders. We fear the military offenders will tell the Judge to go to Hong Kong. Mars has scant respect for the civil power in the River Plate.

THE NATIONAL BANK.

The report of the special committee appointed by Government to inspect the issue department of this Bank we give at foot. It is the most complete refutation to the charges made by one of our colleagues against the bank management, and will be read with deep interest by all.

The course which Mr. Sastre, the popular manager of this bank, adopted in demanding of Government a most searching inquiry, deserves the very highest praise, and the great respectability and position of the gentlemen composing the committee is a double guarantee to the public that the report in question is not a hurried document, but the result of patient inquiry into the issue accounts of the bank, which are found in the most perfect order and method.

The following is the report:—

To the National Finance Minister Dr. D. W. Pacheco.

The undersigned, members of the Special Commission named by decree on the 11th inst. to examine the state of the issue and circulation of the National Bank, have fulfilled that trust, as Y.E. will see by the following particulars and figures.

The Commission assembled on the 17th inst. named Don Pedro Agote Chairman, and instructed him to ask the President of the National Bank for all the data necessary to make the investigation as searching as possible.

The first thing done was to inspect all the correspondence of the Bank with the American Bank Note Company of New York, which has engraved most of the large notes the Bank has in circulation without counting, for the moment, the small notes, which were partly struck off here, and are now being replaced by others from North America.

In this correspondence the Commissioners found six letters giving orders, five of them for large notes and one for small notes. The second and third of these orders were cancelled; but the latter was subsequently immediately renewed by letter, as Y.E. will see in Table No. 1 with this report, showing $35,100,000 notes of different amounts engraved. The Commissioners then revised the different invoices of the notes, as shown in Table 2, with their respective dates; and, after a careful comparison with the Register of Issue of the Bank, the result showed notes received and paid for to the amount of $32,100,000 which tallied with the orders above referred to.

Tables 3 and 4 shew in detail the small notes ordered to be engraved; the first for $3,000,000, in the U. States, and the second for $3,000,000 printed here by the lithographer Robert Lang. The figures of these two tables were compared with the invoices and with the registries of the small note issue of the Bank, and found in every way correct; and we can affirm that in the books of orders and invoices there is absolutely no other order for any amount of notes asked for, or that could have been received from North America.

The Bank, according to the order book and the invoices sent to London for $12,000,000 m/n large notes, of which it has received $9,923,500; and $368,000 are on the way, as advised under date August 7th (See Table 5.) To check these the Commissioners asked that the safes of the Bank should be opened for them; and the $9,923,500 before mentioned were found in them, untouched. It is also publicly known that not a single note of this issue is in circulation.

All this careful sifting, as Y. E. will see, bears out Table C. which is a resumen of the previous ones, and which shows $48,319,829 as the amount of notes ordered by the Bank. This Table gives the total of notes, large and small received from the United States, from London, and engraved in this country; and in addition, $3,616,000 m/n in old hard dollar notes, made current as National money, and of which there has been burned according to the Board books, which we have examined, (Table No. 7) $3,312,961 m/n leaving still in circulation and on hands $297,039; deducting $210 m/n burned, belonging to a private party, and $500 sent to London as a pattern. According to the Board books and on the dates shown in Table 7 small notes to the amount of $456,550 have been burned.

The Commissioners, feeling convinced of the accuracy of the figures just given, will now proceed to show the state of the issue and circulation of the Bank, which is the main object of this inquiry.

In order to put the figures in the clearest light possible, the 22d of this month was fixed on as the day on which to draw up Table 8.

According to said Table the notes ordered, according to the contracts invoices etc. amount to $48,319,829.

On hand in Head Office........	$/n 13432526 50
On hand in Branches according to balance of 31st August..	$/n 3301270 70
Small notes burned.........	$/n 456550 00	17190247 20
Circulation total		31129481 80

It is, therefore, clearly proved that the circulation of Bank on the date named was only $31,126,481.80 in large and small notes, it being authorised to issue and circulate $28,000,000 in large notes and $6,000,000 in small, or 34 millions in all.

The Commissioners, in order to check these figures, have examined month by month the circulation of the Bank in 1885, up to August 31st and give, in Table 9, of the circulation in large and small notes.

To conclude. The Commissioners have examined the treasury of the Bank and its contents, as shown in Tables 10 and 11, with details of the large and small note issue, and the stock of silver coin on hand—$512,310.77 at the Head Office and $303,976 at the Branches—which is over the reserve required for the small note issue.

Having done everything in our power, and that we considered necessary for the due fulfilment of the charge entrusted to us, we have the honour etc.

Pedro Agote—Manuel Ocampo—Vicente F. Lopez—G. Paats—Eduardo Costa.

THE ROCHA PROCLAMATION.

Sunday's demonstration was not only a great triumph for Dardo Rocha, but a triumph for the whole country. It was an assertion of political liberty and political rights which speaks well for the people and their institutions, and the fact that over ten thousand people marched through the street with the greatest order, and in the midst of the greatest political enthusiam, without the slightest row or disturbance, is as complimentary to the government that rules as to the people who obey. If the affair of Sunday was in favour of the National Government or received from it support then it would have no significance, but it is notoriously the other way. Dardo Rocha is the opposition candidate, and ten thousand citizens marched in procession to support him in broad day-light, and through the most public streets of Buenos Ayres, fearlessly asserting their opinions and with the same confidence and security as if they were attending a Reform Meeting in Hyde Park London.

Three cheers for Dardo Rocha and his friends; they have done the country good service, and have raised the political character of the people to a higher level by their good order and political pluck. We wanted some such demonstation to refute all the abuse hurled against General Roca, since this electoral campaign began, and to establish the fact that every citizen is free to vote for whatever candidate he may prefer, without putting on red waistcoast, or tearing off the roof of the Merced Church to hold the ballot box.

Sunday was indeed a great day for Buenos Ayres, a great day for General Roca who protected the people in their rights, and a great day for the people themselves, who have the courage and the manliness to uphold them. All parties have gained, all parties have triumphed by the affair, and all the bosh and nonsense published about the imposition of the Nat. Government is scattered into thin air by the flowers that were thrown from the balconies in every street, on the free and independent citizens who marched beneath.

The Procession was the largest ever witnessed in this city, extending over 25 squares. It formed in Calle Callao at 2 p.m., and whilst in process of formation, numerous extemporary speeches were delivered in the street. All along the route through Calle Rivadavia and down Florida the balconies were filled with ladies who vied with each other in throwing flowers on the gentlemen who passed; perhaps, Dr. Newbery's, at the corner of Cangallo and Florida, was the most remarkable for the profusion of flowers thrown from the windows. As a matter of course the tramways were stopped, and both Calle Rivadavia and Florida were so thronged with sight seers that it was difficult to pass up or down those street until the procession had passed. The enthusiasm at some of the streets corners was such that even the music was drowned with the cheers. ¡Viva Dardo Rocha! so echoed from one end of the town to the other, that it would seem the very paving stones cried Viva Rocha. And yet in the midst of all this boisterous cheering, clapping of bands and shouting there was not a single "muera" or improper shout in the whole throng. All was order and method, and good humour. Every parish had its flag and its band; the first files were composed of some of the most respectable and best dressed men in town, and then followed a few of the 'oi polloi,' all marshalled in lines and all walking orderly and in good, figure. We counted some of these clubs whose members numbered 1,200. The Students Club composed of mere youths was very impressive.

It is impossible to give exact numbers, but we roughly estimate the figure at from 10 to 15000 people. Arriving at the Retiro, the Clubs moved round the square and drew up in line, but such was the crowd there was no fitting the people into the Plaza, although by far the largest plaza in this city. General Campos when the whole procession drew up in the Retiro, addressed Dr. Dardo Rocha, who was on the balcony in Dr. Tarnassi's house. Next followed Mr. Epiphany Portela, then followed Dr. Leguizamon and then Dr. Rocha in an eloquent and fiery speech addresed to the people, but it was difficult to hear a word he said, such was the uproar and cheering going on at all sides and the vast space covered with people from one end of the Retiro to the other.

At the conclusion of Dr. Rocha's brilliant speech, the meeting dissolved, and the people retired to their homes, setting an example that cannot fail to be productive of great good. At six o'clock the city was as quiet as on an ordinary Sunday, and those who had not seen the procession could hardly realize that it had taken place. We have not words sufficient to praise the admirable arrangements, not merely of the Committees of Management, but also of the Police. We noticed on Dr. Tarnassi's balcony, when Dr. Rocha spoke to the people, that by his side were Mr. Robert Cano, General Lucio Mansilla, R. A. Munoz, and Dr. Tarnassi.

THE

ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

As an old member and former officer of the society, I wish to express my hearty approval of your correspondent's ("A Member") observations in your Sunday issue, anent the building scheme, and most cordially re-echo the following:

"I do not look on the society as a mere money-making concern, and I wish to see its income spent on immediate benefits, and not, whilst there is so much room for improvement, put aside for the benefit of my grandchildren."

Evidently, if the society, in exceptionally favorable circumstances, can only calculate on an annual surplus of about $1,000 m/n, it will be absurd to attempt to purchase a site and erect an edifice with borrowed funds. The committee, moreover, should not receive power to commit the society to such a grave undertaking without calling a general meeting to discuss the question.

In this instance no announcement was made that so important a subject would be brought up for discussion, and full powers were conferred on the committee by a majority of a meeting of forty members out of 428, not ten per cent. of the total.

It would certainly be preferable to rent larger premises, with conveniences such as are at present much required and to retain the exclusive services of a porter or attendant, instead of being at the mercy of the "concierge" of the Hotel Anchorena.

But I am amazed at your correspondent's remarks concerning the election of committee members. An urn is set in the centre of the room in which the voting takes place. The voter selects from the list of 428 members the names he may choose, and, writing them on a piece of paper he drops it into the urn. The names that obtain the greatest number of votes are declared to be duly elected. Can anything be more fair? A list of candidates is handed round, but it does not follow that because a man is a candidate I am bound to vote for him.

Does your correspondent consider it unfair that a member should canvass for votes or circulate lists? One would think he does. At the general meeting in March last a certain number of members endeavoured to censure the committee for recommending a list of candidates for election. The committee had a perfect right to make that recommendation. They recommended for election certain gentlemen whom they knew were willing to serve, because they believed them to be good men and true. It lay with the voters present to elect those gentlemen or not, as they pleased. They did elect them.

It is asserted that the printing of a "House List" is unfair, and that the committee exercise undue influence on the voters. This is manifestly absurd, and the assertion is not very complimentary to the electors.

In the government of the Bank of England eight directors retire every year. The directors draw up a house-list of eight names which are proposed to fill the places of those retiring, and though the proprietors are in nowise required to vote for these names, yet they are always elected. (See Gilbart's "Principle and Practice of Banking.") The common sense of this, as applied to the Literary Society, is evident.

There are many members whom everyone would like to see on the committee, but who, unfortunately, will not serve, and the committee are in a position to recommend the best men, who, they know, are prepared to serve if elected. Nevertheless, it was agreed that the house-list should be abolished, and that the committee should in future support no candidate officially. Every candidate could put his name down on a list opened for the purpose, and this entire list should be submitted to the general meeting, so that the requisite number of officers might be elected from the names therein contained. But this did not prohibit any member from rejecting every name on the said list and substituting others of his own preference; nor did it prohibit any member, whether on the committee or off it, from canvassing, to his heart's content, as an individual member of the society, in favor of any names he might prefer.

At the last meeting the full list of candidates was presented to the members, other un-official lists were circulated besides, and every member present dropped into the urn a list of the names he chose to vote for. The papers were folded and unsigned, and the tellers could not know which way the members voted. This is the election of which your correspondent says the "purity was tampered with"

While denying the right of others to canvass in favor of those they prefer, I wonder if he, on his side, strictly abstained from canvassing? The charge of "undue influence," &c., is absolutely ridiculous. It therefore appears that your correspondent is of opinion that no election will be fair and honest until the candidates he favours are returned, and that the voters of the last two general meetings were utterly unfitted to exercise the privilege of selecting their officers, but, on the contrary, were a set of geese who voted blindly for certain unsuitable names, acting under the occult influence of a Machiavelian Committee.

I am, Sir,
Yours obediently,
Cascos de Rolhas

THE DEPARTURE OF GENERAL OSBORNE.

In this age of change (to which universal law the corps diplomatique, with all its vaunted privileges must bow) the removal of a foreign Minister has become quite an ordinary event in our social and political life, and scarcely calls for special mention, but in the present case we may be pardoned for making an exception. Few foreign ministers have remained so long here; none have ever sympathised so much with our ways and institutions, in which he loved to trace a reflex of his own great nation, nor has any plenipotentiary ever done so much for the welfare of La Argentina as the much esteemed General Osborne who now returns to his native land.

In all the great questions that have arisen in home or foreign policy within the last decade, General Osborne's advice has been eagerly sought for by the chief men of all parties, and well would it have been for us all had Dr. Tejedor adopted it, when in opposition to his colleagues, the American Minister advocated the grand saving theory of respect for the nation in contradistinction to the wretched local policy of the moment—"La Patria Chica" which simply meant the dismemberment of the Nation and the strangulation of those magnificent destinies which to the ever thinking man—make up for a great deal of our present short comings, and should be the sheet-anchor of the Republic; the one clear bright guiding star that no passing cloud can hide from the vision of every true Argentine.

These were the theories for which General Osborne fought so bravely, and bled so freely in the darkest moment of the United States struggle, and on every occasion that offered he labored 'con amore' to inpress them on Mitre, Avellaneda, Sarmiento, Alsina, Tejedor and the other great party leaders. Indeed General Osborne can ask no higher tribute than the respect in which he is held by the chief men of all parties, whilst scarcely understanding their language much less the undercurrents of local politics.

A soldier by profession, he was, so to speak, only an amateur diplomatist, and yet so great was the grasp of his intellect that on more occasions than one he beat the oldest of his colleagues in state craft. Notably was this the case in our question with Chile. The clearest heads on both sides had been for years studying the question in all its bearings. Both Government Houses had been turned inside out, and the dusty archives of old Spain were ransacked to establish the justice of Chile's pretended claim to Patagonia. But all of no avail and when at last war was about to be declared, General Osborne stepped forward and arranged 'peace with honor' in three or four despatches.

By this admirable arrangement, which displayed the very highest order of diplomacy the Argentine Republic, acquired more, without one drop of blood, than she could have hoped from the most successful war, whilst our ungrateful neighbor, whose freedom was achieved by San Martin's gallant army, got more of the disputed territory than she deserved or had a right to.

The "Munroe doctrine" found in General Osborn a warm advocate, and the spirited defence of unfortunate Peru by Mr Blaine, whilst Minister of Foreign Affairs for the Garfield Cabinet, commanded our friend's highest admiration. As a necessary part and parcel of this theory he labored to foment the commercial union of the two countries. Unfortunately these efforts were not crowned with success, but as General Osborne is not a man to be easily put aside from so worthy an undertaking, we may hope for better luck on his return to Washington.

Space will not permit of our referring even in the most cursory manner to the General's services in the war for the Union, but we do hope that on his return home he will not forget his friends in a foreign land, who had learned to prize his genial kindly disposition quite as well as his comrades in arms had honored him for his intrepid valor.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday Congress was crowded, as the Great Curso Forzoso Bill, by special appointment, was up for discussion. We noticed in the galleries numerous merchants, brokers, bank managers and city shopkeepers. The interest taken in the question is wide-spread. Deputy Funes made a most amusing speech on the troubles, horrors, pains and penalties of 'curso forzoso,' which at our leisure we intend to publish. His description of the state of the people in the Interior through curso forzoso provoked roars of laughter. Mr. Villamayor, as informing member of the majority of the committee, next followed, but there was no salt in his speech; and just as Deputy Civit asked permit to speak, the house rose for a relieving quarter of an hour.

We have received several communications about the Literary Society, which for the moment we must hold over. We publish one paper on the subject in another column; the other papers will follow in a few days.

To-day the great National Government auction takes place at Mr. Victorica's Land Office, corner of Calle Salta and Rivadavia. We advise those who wish to buy National lands for $500 m/n to attend. Some of the land to be sold is very good.

Baron Von Pollnitz leaves for the far South on Thursday. He sends down in the Pomona a steam-launch built by Schwartz, in which he means to ascend the Rio Negro and Limay up to the far-famed Nahuel Huapi.

To-day a special party for the Rio Tala, leaves the Central Station at 8.40 with Mr. William White, Director of Department of Engineers. We regret sincerely our inability to accept Mr. White's kind invitation, but we join him and his friends in spirit during the trip.

The French packet Orenoque is expected in Montevideo to-day, but unfortunately her passengers will have four days' quarantine. Dr. Don A. Fernandez returns from Europe in her.

The "Scotch Church Parish Magazine" for August was given round yesterday; it is beautifully printed and got up, and quite a credit to its editor.

We hold for our next a report of the Chascomus Fair, which we are glad to say passed off famously.

The wedding of Mr. Alexander Campbell with Miss Taylor, at the estancia Yerná, was a very brilliant affair. The Rev. Dr. Conder (whom we congratulate on his restoration to good health) officiated at the marriage ceremony, Mr J. B. Oyler ably discharging his duties as best man. The presents to the bride were numerous and beautiful. At the breakfast the various toasts were given in a very able manner. Late in the afternoon the happy couple left to travel southwards. In the evening there was a ball and a native "baile" in a large tastefully-decorated galpon; over 200 visitors attended.

Mr. Hayward arrived yesterday from Ayacucho and Chascomus, having attended both fair and travelled down as far as Juarez. He brings back in his pocket a large amount of orders for his remedy "Especifico Glycerino," the efficacy of which he has so established in the minds of estancieros that there are many users of his remedy for the coming season. Mr. Hayward travels over the country with such rapidity that we freely admit he is the most active Englishman that has come to this country this century.

The Rochista demonstration on Sunday was the biggest thing of the kind yet. It passed off with the greatest order. Such was the enthusiasm that several thousands of the "manifestantes" (There were about 10,000 in all) who came from the camp districts to look on, were drawn by some odic force into the procession. There were a great number of high hats amongst the marching hosts, and a still greater of low ones. The intense seediness of the "musicas," or at least three quarters of them, was the subject of general merriment and remark; but the demand for their services was very great; and every man in and out of town who could puff a trombone or bassoon, or whack a drum, was eagerly snapped up for the great occasion. Such a political procession was never seen in the streets of Buenos Ayres before.

The cablegraphic news on Sunday was somewhat mixed, and it is hard to tell whether the Czar means war or not. If he do, he's a greater fool than we took him for. Salisbury is to the fore, taking the initiative in the scuffle; not like the G. O. M. not knowing what to do in an emergency, and when he did move, sure to put his foot in it.

Mr. John Somoza wants a 20-years' concession of all the gold fields and washings in Patagones. We should say that John should not be given such concession, although it would take a big lot of Patagonian gold to make a passable sovereign.

There are some precious ruffians amongst the "mayorals" of the tramways, although the majority are respectable and well-conducted men. On Saturday, as an elderly lady and little girl were alighting from a Belgrano tram car at the corner of Calle Charcas, the "mayoral," whose car was evidently late, rang the bell while she was in the act of stepping down, and she was flung on her knees on the footway. The car dashed on, the fellow grinning at what he had done. Ladies travelling alone in tram cars should always take a note of the guard's number, to be able to expose such a hound as the fellow in question.

A Lobos estanciero went into a grog-shop in Calle Talcahuano on Saturday and struck up a gin-and-water friendship with a couple of loose-looking fishes who were there before him. When he was going away one of them embraced him "with effusion," as is the fashion here at funerals and other ceremonies, public and private. When he got home he had to draw up estimates for a new watch and chain.

There are very bad accounts from Paris of Dr. Avellaneda's health. They say the doctors have all but given him over. We are deeply sorry to hear this. We believe he stops at the Scribe.

There was a high-life "tormenta" in the 18th Section on Saturday night, and the Commissary was called in to throw oil on the troubled domestic waters. The parties are of 'elevado rango,' and the unpleasantness arose through the gentleman finding three others in his wife's company when he dropped in earlier than expected from his Club. One would imagine that in such a multitude of intruders there was perfect safety for both the lady and her Lord.

None but the brave, etc—Angelina: "The man I marry must be handsome, brave, and clever!"—Tompkins: "Dear me! how fortunate we have met!

The school returns for 1883 have just been published. Two years behind time is a trifle in this part of the earth.

We see a long-minded Pot and kettle argument in the papers about the delays recently complained of in the fumigation of emigrants on Martin Garcia. Somebody is making mistaken statements.

The ball on Saturday night in the Talcahuano Street School was not up to the Bolsa affair by a long chalk, as the small rooms spoiled both the effect and the dancing; yet it was a grand affair in every way, and cost a mint of money. The Morning Post (Republica) says there were two "incidentes" during the night: One a smashed pane of glass that fell on Mrs. Irigoyen, Mrs. Victorica and other "grandes dames" and frightened their wits out; the other the next thing to a 'fite' between a fat lady from the Interior, to whom Alboni is a sylph, and a thin masher who got entangled in the train of her dress, tore it, and threw himself on his head. Both the masher and the matron used such strong language that the stewards had to interfere. We have not heard of any top-coats being last.

Five engineers and 1300 navvies will be out from England next month, to begin the port at Montevideo. It will be a race between it and the Madero port.

The troops of the garrison were all under arms in barracks on Sunday but their services were not for a moment required.

Dentist, who was formerly a photographer (to patient); Take a seat, please. Now turn your head a trifle this way—that's it. There. Look right at the knob on that door, and assume a pleasant expression. Now, keep perfectly still, and I'll be through in a moment.

The Lottery for the Merced Church did not come off on Sunday, but will next Sunday. Politicians were so busy they had no time to buy lottery tickets.

To night there is a banquet of 300 covers in the Colon Theatre given to Dr. Irigoyen; to-morrow night there will be one of 500 covers in the National Theatre, to Dr. Rocha, and we will not be surprised if a 700 cover feed turn up the night after to Dr. Juarez Celman. The only candidate that is backward in the kinfe and fork line is Dr. Gorostiaga, due, unfortunately, to his delicate state of health.

There is a capital portrait of Mr. Ojeda, the P.M.G., now in view in Bossi's in Calle Florida. An American subscriber declares that it is the 'boss' portrait of the season. We forget the artist's name; but he has been here a long time. Name ends in oni or any, so he must be either an Italian or an Irishman, probably a little of both.

The Prensa has pounced on another 'repair' ship in the navy, the Piedrabuena, which our colleague says will prove another Rosetti. Even this latter ship is nothing to a famous ship in the United States navy, broken up since Cleveland took the helm, and out of which half a dozen fortunes were made. She was under repair for a quarter of a century.

The Politeama reopens to-morrow with La Dese Checci (Ketchy) in Teodora. The theatre is so changed for the better that its oldest habitués will not know it.

Ferrari is out. Not the opera man, but he who brutally murdered a woman at Barracas several years ago. The judge would not admit his self accusation after such a lapse of time, and set him at liberty.

Faust drew a big audience at the National Theatre on Sunday night. It was well sung. At the Colon the tenor Arrighi had another ovation as Manrico.

The papers, or rather one of them, say that a National dollar each was offered on Saturday in vain for any number of copies of a morning colleague with a long political article that seems to have tickled its party. We would n't give a National cent for all the political articles that have been written since the 1st of April.

A man should never doubt the possibility of getting a quart into a pint flask, when he has seen how his wife can get No. 6 foot into a No. 4 shoe.

There is too utterly doleful news from Montevideo about the Massenet opera troupe, which, according to telegrams to a colleague, has burst up, and the poor artistes have not the price of their breakfasts, much less of their tickets back to France. This is the third or fourth theatrical catastrophe of the kind this year, owing to the overdoing of the public amusement business, and the high premium on gold.

The Cronica exposes some horrid cases of torture to soldiers by officers, and calls on good natured General Lavalle, commander of the garrison, to investigate the matter, and go and hear the victims' own stories in the Military Hospital. The General should do this. The army is disgraced by such savage acts.

Our ball-playing friend Chiquito de Eibar will be here next month with a company of "pelotistas" from Bilbao. As a matter of course they are the best players in Europe. Everything and everybody that aspires to River Plate favor must be called "the best in Europe," be it a ball of twine, a ball player, or a second-class operatic bawler.

Judging from what we see in the papers the city is threatened with a summer irruption of piano players, fiddlers, accordeon performers etc. etc., all "the best in Europe." They'll all burst up, like the Massenet and other companies. Why can they not give us a rest during the hot summer months?

The good ladies who manage the Asilo de Mendigos must be capital housekeepers. They feed the whole lot of paupers in the place (some 450) at a cost of 14½ cents each per day.

A bookkeeper in the Rentas Office has made a most curious calculation, or rather 2425 calculations of the nail-in-the-horse shoe kind: One cent, invested at 1 per cent per annum on the first Christmas Day, with the interest capitalised annually, would have reached to day the fabulous sum of 139 millions of Nats; and if the interest were capitalised quarterly, 150 millions Nats. We shall feel much obliged to any subscriber who will kindly check this wonderful calculation and let us know the result to-morrow.

Important Notice.

I hereby advise the public that I have established a Gymnasium Institute at Calle Florida 406, where I also apply the MASSAGE SYSTEM as studied and practiced at Dr. KELLGREN'S well known institute in London.

This system has given the most surprising results in curing chest and lung complaints, and all maladies caused by the kidneys and joints, and in any way connected with the nervous system. Thus the celebrated SYSTEM of MASSAGE is recommended as a certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, undeveloped muscles, paralysis, disorders in the digestion and in the circulation of the blood, etc., etc.

I have also a special class for the development of the body and muscles.

The following is the time-table I have arranged for the application of the Massage System:

For Gentlemen 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

For Ladies 12½ to 2 p.m.

Consultation hours—11.30 a.m. to 12.30.

Patients can also make arrangements for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.

Gold	38.60 o/o prem.
Cedulas E............	81⅛
Cedulas F	80¾
Cedulas G	87⅝
Nat. Bank Shares......	147

The bullish speculation, strange to say, has survived the arrival of the National Commissioner. Only a month ago, the fortunes of the bullish dealers appeared to hang on the ambiguous information, concerning the success or failure of the loan. Only a fortnight ago, the speculative augurs saw the turning of the tide, as the steamer, fraught with the commissioner and the loan, approached the Plate. To-day, we rub our eyes before the stern reality of the speculation. The gold premium stands hard above 38 o/o, in spite of the improved prospects of the loan business, and advances in the very teeth of the Bank Board and its exchange drawing. The busy season that is dawning on the country, the impending arrivals of produce and the expected relief in the exchange market, appear impotent to stem the rise or to lessen the growing demand of gold for the end of next month and November. The market rules hard, although many favorable circumstances combine to favor a bearish speculation and a fall in the premium. There is a striking contradiction in this state of affairs, as the bulls do nothing to support the market and the efforts of the bears fail to produce any effect on the premium.

Under these circumstances, nothing could be more abnormal than the extraordinary firmness of the market for October and November. This phase of the situation is specially remarkable, as the firmness of the premium does not arise from any speculative tactics; on the contrary, the demand of specie for October and November springs from strong commercial quarters. The key note to the market is the scarcity of gold. Every steamer leaving this port takes large shipments of gold, in view of the low rates of exchange; and, at the rate this efflux is going on, the scarcity of the precious metal threatens to affect the market considerably next month. It remains to be seen how far the shipments of produce, during the busy season, will neutralize the effects of this drain, and if the volume of exports will put up the exchange rate to par.

The speculation in the gold circle drags in a listless manner, the market presenting a liquidated appearance. No violent fluctuations are expected between this and settlement day, but operators think that high differences will have to be paid in backwardation, which is rather good news for holders of gold. About two hundred thousand dollars changed hands for cash this morning; the market opened at 38.60, fell to 38.40 and closed at 38.60. Operations for the end of the month embraced $375,000; rates opened at 38.60 o/o premium. Business for the end of October amounted to $250,000 at 38 to 37½. Seventy thousand were sold for November at 37. The gold market this morning opened with a falling tendency, grew suddenly firm and closed hard. Nearly a million dollars were sold during official hours.

Stocks and shares show no revival, and the apathy of the investing market is growing daily more pronounced. People wonder what is becoming of the savings that used to be put into Cedulas formerly. These savings are calculated at a minimum of one million dollars per month, and the Bolsa sees very little of this money at present. Capital, at all events, does not go into stocks now, and the fact is worthy of notice. A few thousand Series E changed hands at 81⅛, and Cedulas F at 81 and 80½. Operations in the new Series G embraced 14,000 for cash at 87½-⅝, and 27,000 for the end of the month at 87½-⅝. There was a slight spurt in National Bank Shares; 300 were sold for the end of the month at 147. Three hundred were also sold for the end of October at 149.

Owing to the departure of the French mail, the exchange market is again at a stand-still. The packet did not take a large exchange mail, but it is supposed that she took a large amount of specie, although the figure is not known. Some brokers state that the gold market jumped to 39 on Saturday night, owing to the fact that the Provincial Bank stopped drawing exchange; but the Bank, in this instance, proceeded as usual, closing its exchange office at 3 p.m., and there are grounds to believe that the Board will draw for the next packet at present rates. The money market continues easy for paper, but very tight for gold. None of the Banks will let go any gold. If differences in backwardation are large, we may expect gold to come up from the Mount.

Our colleague La Libertad, whose connection with Dr. Plaza is well known, states that there is no foundation to the rumor, that the talented ex-Minister will take charge of the loan negotiation in London. Late advices report Dr. Plaza in Paris in excellent health.

Advices from Nueve de Julio announce the camps in excellent condition and heavy increase in the herds. In Carmen all the sheepfarmers are actively preparing for the shearing. Camps have greatly improved. The lands in Ayacucho are coming round after the heavy rains; 3000 sheep 'al corte' were sold in the district at 30 m/c per head. Six hundred cows were sold in Rio IV at 7$25 per head. Advices from Carhué announce great camp fires outside; camps are in good condition; 8000 cows were sold in the district at 6½ $m/n; sheep are thin. The increase in the herds in Chascomus is large. New wools reported sold at 4 $m/n per arrobe. Two thousand capones were sold in the district at 52 $m/c per head. Camps in Rojas are reported in excellent condition; the herds are improving; a large contract of wool is spoken of at 3.65 $m/n on the estancia per arrobe. Advices from Loreto and Venado Tuerto state that camps are improving very rapidly; some parts are in splendid condition. All the farmers are impatiently expecting the opening of the Transandine line to Picassa Lake.

The Lamport & Holt line of steamers will convey 20,000 tons of materials from Europe for the Santa Fe Railway Company, and 10,000 for the Entre Riano Railway Company, materials to be delivered at Santa Fé and Parana respectively. These are two very important contracts.

Mate Brignetti, of the Ital. barque Biagino, from Newport, spoke the British barque H T W K, en route from New York for Valparaiso, 57 days out, in Lat. 32° and Long. 46°. All well on board.

The news that Congress had decided to grant an increased emission of four million of notes to the Provincial Bank, as well as 12 millions to the National Bank, put a fresh spurt into the gold market this afternoon, but the rise in the premium fell short of the jump that had been anticipated when the announcement was spread. The premium ran up to 39½ for the end of the month and 38½ for the end of October. The following business was reported during the evening:—

150,000$ for 30th at 39 to 39½ per cent.
200,000$ for Oct. 30th at 38 to 38½.
300 Certificates of the National Bank, for the end of October at 110, cum dividend.

The gold market closed this evening at 39.20 sellers, and 39 buyers for the 30th; and 38.20 buyers for the end of October.

Messrs Pereyra & Nevares have sold this fortnight 15,000 cows from Mr Zubiaurre's estancia at 180 m/c per head. These well-known brokers have four or five thousand more on sale at the same price. The herds from the Zubiaurre estancias have the reputation of being the very best 'criollo' cattle in the province.

Cattle-brokers report cows in more demand and firmer prices.

Land-brokers state that there is absolutely nothing doing in the land market for the moment. Not a single operation in this province or Santa Fé is talked of.

THOUSANDS OF ROSY LIPS

Attest the many virtues of the genuine Murray & Lanman's Florida Water. Matchless as a perfume, it is equally matchless as a cosmetic, allaying the irritation of the skin, relieving headache, preventing faintness, and, when diluted, the best of tooth-washes. Truly it is the most valuable of all floral waters.
